

Local Repair Bodyshop Wins Award!

Premier Bodyworks for the second year running have won The British Bodyshop Awards LGV Repair Bodyshop of the Year 2016.

The event was held at the Battersea Evolution in London and hosted by TV personality Zoe Ball.

It was attended by the body repair industries largest work providers and bodyshops, and it showcases 15 presenting companies to reward their respective repairers from around the country.

The Light Goods Vehicle Repairer of the year award was presented by Sopp and Sopp's Operations Director Matt Henson to Premier Bodyworks Directors Paul Hughes and Nick Dawson who collected the award on behalf of the team at the Moreton Hall based business.

Specialising in accident repairs to any type and size of vehicle, ranging from trucks to cars, Premier Bodyworks have been established for six years and having won the award for two consecutive years is a glowing reflection to the skilled team pictured above/below. Sales Director Nick Dawson added 'We all work hard to provide our customers with exceptional levels of service and turnaround times and I'm delighted that everyone's efforts have been rewarded for a second time!'
